

Aladdin Kids Junior Director (aged 15-17)

Description

The Foundry Center for the Arts is looking for a Junior Director to join our theater team for our summer musical Aladdin Kids. The Junior Director for this position should expect to be involved in all aspects of rehearsing from acting, dancing, and singing.

The benefits to the Jr Director are exciting and important. They include working with a great team of theater enthusiasts who care deeply about producing quality work, learning the ins and outs of theater production and management, as well as assisting in the production and design of an entire program. In return the Jr Director should bring essential skills to this position: excellent communication skills, attention to detail, the ability to work independently and in groups, and most importantly, a strong interest in theater.

Hours: Monday through Friday 8:45-12:15 July 11th-29th, with performances July 29th and 30th at 6pm.

Responsibilities

- Help staff coordinate daily activities
- Work in the development campers which will be incorporated into the production
- Provide additional supervision to youth attendees
- Provide assistance in all areas as directed
- Attend performances July 29th and 30th

Requirements

Excellent organizational skills and attention to detail are important. Must work well with children, some experience preferred but not required.

The Foundry Center for the Arts

The Foundry Center for the Arts is a 501 C3 organization. The mission of the Foundry is to bring out the creator in all of us.

To Apply

Email resume of previous theater experiences and volunteer work to info@foundryarts.org